 Easy attendance, beyond your SIS

 Auto-assign students to homeroom

The screenshot displays the MINGA FlexTime Manager interface. It features a sidebar with navigation icons and a main dashboard. The dashboard is divided into sections: FlexTime Periods, Activities, and student status cards. The FlexTime Periods section shows two periods: 10 AM - 11 AM and 11:30 AM - 12:15 AM, each with counts for Registered, Not registered, Checked in, and Not checked in. The Activities section shows three activities: Video Editing, Math Makeup Class, and 3D Printing, each with counts for Registered, Checked in, and Not checked in. The student status cards show individual student profiles with their names and the classes they are registered for or have checked in for.

FlexTime Period	Registered	Not registered	Checked in	Not checked in
10 AM - 11 AM	17	30	2	15
11:30 AM - 12:15 AM	24	7	20	4

Activity	Registered	Checked in	Not checked in

HASSLE-FREE MANAGEMENT

Create & Manage Flex Periods & Alternative Learning Opportunities

Don't waste any more time manually organizing flex schedules. With just a few clicks, teachers and admins can set up, adjust, and manage flex periods that support every student's needs. Whether it's make-up classes, re-test, interventions, office hours, or extracurricular activities, organizing it all takes minutes—not hours.

Tools That Make FlexTime Scheduling a Breeze

- ✓ Manage enrollment with flexible rosters, class limits, and registration cut-off times—plus smart student assignment by grade, group, or individual needs
- ✓ Prevent conflicts with “No Party” groups that keep certain students from enrolling together
- ✓ Assign and automatically notify students who need to come by and see you in just a couple of clicks

We're having far fewer issues with “Flex Block”. Now, I have my “Flex Block” template and just duplicate that. Minga has taken something chaotic and given order to it all.”

Nurture Student Interests With Personalized Learning Paths

Give students the freedom to take ownership of their learning. They can explore all available flex activities, view real-time class availability, and register for options that match their interests—unless already assigned by a teacher. It's an easy, empowering way to support personalized learning at scale.

Give Students Voice and Choice—With Smart Boundaries

- ✓ Students can easily join activities assigned by teachers or choose their own with just a few clicks
- ✓ Keep enrollment organized with restrictions that guide students to appropriate options
- ✓ Ensure every student is placed by auto-assigning unregistered students to their homeroom teacher's activity

Giving kids a lot more choice in their schedules has given them the opportunity to do something that's their doing. It removes that level of control in education - now the kids are choosing where they'd like to go.”

Go Beyond Your SIS for Flex Attendance

Do what your SIS can't. Monitor student check-ins in real-time, get alerts when they're in the wrong activity, and measure how effective your sessions really are. It's smarter, faster, and built for the way your school runs flexible periods.

Smarter Tools for Flex Periods

- ✓ Quick and simple check ins at kiosks using QR or barcodes on digital or physical IDs—no manual attendance needed.
- ✓ Monitor participation rates and use real-time data to support teachers and optimize resources
- ✓ Use the FlexTime MyClass view to mark students tardy, assign hall passes, or recognize positive behavior—all in one place

Now, everything is very automated. Students are just scanning in and it automatically assigns a tardy.
